

Commercial Services:

James has devoted his life's work exclusively to photography, but within this medium he has enjoyed a varied career, which has included many commercial assignments, photographing cosmetics, jewelry, food, furnishings, electronic equipment and art objects for large and small companies, and individuals entrepreneurs and artists. With this in mind he can creatively, quickly, effectively handle your photographic needs

In addition, if your planned advertising and promotional pieces are essentially based on the creative use of photographic images with complimentary promotional text, James will be pleased to discuss your objectives and goals, and from there provide you with a proposal designed to meet them.

The Studio offers cool comfort in which to capture your products in the best light, in a space designed to maximize efficiency and with versatile equipment that can produce any desired results and ultimate look.

The most important aspect of my photographic business is having satisfied customers, and providing those images, brochures and other promotional pieces that are beautiful, purposeful, and effective.
